Pastor Jeff Steele-Steeber

- I. Why do the crowds go out to meet Jesus? They _____ that Jesus is the one who has come to save them.
- II. Why do the crowds go out to meet Jesus? They believe that Jesus is the one who has come to save them from the _____.
- III. What does “Hosanna” mean? “Hosanna”, a quote from Psalm 118:25 means _____
- IV. The Israelites want to be saved _____ from the pain and sorrow they were suffering from _____
- V. We believe that Jesus did not come to save us from now, but to save us for _____
- VI. How we _____ things determines whether our expectations are met.
- VII. Only when we remember that _____ is the cause of all the evil in the world, can we appreciate why Jesus entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.
- VIII. When our perception acknowledges that sin..._____ sin..._____ sin...the sin of the world, _____ we know why we cry out “Hosanna”.
- IX. He _____ himself by becoming obedient to death – even death on a _____!
(Philippians 2:8 NIV)
